"Religious freedom allows the Church and all religious communities, to live out their faith in public and to serve the common good." USCCB, June 2022

More About Religious Freedom Week - June 22-29, 2022

Each year, the U.S. Catholic Bishops launch Religious Freedom Week on June 22, the feast day of SS Thomas More and Bishop John Fisher because these men, who gave their lives for the freedom of religion and freedom of conscience, are role-models for us to follow.

It's good to love one's country, but ultimate loyalty is due only to Christ and his Kingdom. These men loved their country but when the law of King Henry VIII came into conflict with the law of Christ, they submitted to Christ. They bear witness to the truth that no government can make a claim on a person's soul by compelling him to compromise his conscience.

More About the Eucharistic Revival - Begun on June 19, 2022

The Bishops of the U.S. are calling for a 3-year grassroots revival of devotion and belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. They believe that God wants to see a movement of Catholics healed, converted, formed and unified by an encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist and sent out in mission "for the life of the world." ⁽¹⁾

"My hope is that truly a fire of love for Our Lord and the Eucharist will be ignited in our country and people will come to discover that Jesus has always been with us," said Franciscan Sister Alicia Torres. "He has never abandoned us...There's so much new life available through a relationship with him, particularly through his True Presence in the Eucharist." ⁽²⁾
